"We Send Our Child To [REDACTED] Because We Want Her To Succeed In School - And In Life"

"...And Because We're Her Parents"

"Our Julie was struggling in school. Although she was passing, she had to try so hard just to keep up. It broke our hearts. Her teachers tried, but they couldn't give her the quality time she needed.

Like all parents, we want the best for our child; we started a college fund when she was three. But what good will that be if she can't get into the school of her choice?"
